Card.

I desire to call the attention of the public of Carson and vicinity to the fact that I have recently sold out my entire stock of drugs and the good will of the business to Mr. A. E. Harris, who will henceforth conduct said business, known as the "City Drug Store," opposite the Postoffice. I desire to thank the general public for their generous patronage in the past; and I bespeak for Mr. Harris a continuation of the same, believing that it will be to your mutual advantage.

I am, respectfully,
W. H. CHEDIC.

Examinations.

The public examinations of the Carson Public Schools, for the year 1891, will take place as follows:

A division is threatened among the Gentiles of Utah. The people of the Territory cannot expect capital to come there if the Gentiles are not an absolute unit. There must be a good many political fools to the acre in that country.

Some of the papers are taking exceptions to the fact that the cook in the Stanford University gets $5000 and the Professor of Philosophy $4000. We agree with the balance of the press. The cook ought to have $7000 and the Professor $1000.

SHOOTING A COLLECTOR.

Job Smith Plants Bird Shot in Frank O'Leves.

Yesterday afternoon, about 1 o'clock Frank O'Leves went out near Gardner's ranch to call on Mr. Job Smith and collect a bill of him. Some high words followed the collector's visit, and Mr. Smith finally went into the house, and bringing out a shotgun peppered him with bird shot.

Smith was arrested and bound over in the sum of $2000. His examination takes place today.

The young man who was shot received no serious wounds, but his legs were badly peppered with the shot. He claims that Smith owed him for work at his logging camp.

Smith claims that the man was working for his board and was hired in the camp by his father-in-law, and not earning his board was discharged. He claimed $10 but Smith refused to pay, alleging that he did not owe it.

Enterprising Journals.

The News was just 24 hours ahead of the APPEAL in reporting the shooting scrape at Candelaria. The boys are wide awake and on the alert for news.—Tribune.

The Gazette published the news 24 hours ahead of any paper in Carson and 15 hours ahead of any paper in the State. It received a special from Candelaria that afternoon, which the other papers appropriated without credit, but that's all right.—Gazette.

The APPEAL did not publish the item from the fact that it has always been its custom that when the character of an editor's wife is assailed it waits for further particulars.

The wisdom of this course was apparent when reliable information reached this city from Hawthorne. It showed that the cause of the trouble in no way affected the character of Mrs. Booth, yet several papers had taken the idle gossip of men about town and published an article reflecting on a woman's character which had no foundation whatever.

Russell Dramatic Company

This company, which has visited here a number of times, and has given excellent satisfaction will open at the Opera House on Saturday evening, and will give a matinee on Saturday afternoon. New talent has been added to the company since its last visit, by the addition of Albert Hosmer and Miss Hattie Rose, artists of recognized ability, who will appear in standard plays. Popular prices of admission will be charged, and no extra charge for reserved seats. Seats can be secured at Arlington House.

Box sheet now open at Arlington cigar store.

The Reno Gazette has information from Washington, indicating that the Carson Mint will run full handed until October 1st, and possibly longer.

The above was in last week's Gazette. The advisability of discharging its Washington correspondent is painfully apparent.

"Deserve Success and You Command It."

The members of the Carson High School Debating Societies are preparing for a grand conclusion of the year's work.

They respectfully ask the people of Carson to consider the fact they have endeavored to entertain the public at their regular exercises during the year; that as members of said societies they feel the need of a suitable library in connection with the school.

Therefore they will do their best to merit the patronage of the people, which they hope will be generous on the eve of July 9th, the occasion of their entertainment at the Carson Opera House.

Admission, adults 50c, children 25c.
